Wichita, KS – Dale Seiwert has joined the Wichita Regional Chamber of Commerce as the organization's Vice President of Finance and Administration. He started his position on January 2.

Seiwert will utilize his management, accounting and finance experience to direct the administrative activities of the organization including financial reports and forecasts. In his role he'll oversee accounting, payroll, technology, human resources and facilities management.

Gary Plummer, President and CEO of the Chamber, said that he welcomed Seiwert's experience and connections within the business community. "Dale came highly recommended to us by community leaders and former colleagues. We're looking forward to benefitting from his management and accounting expertise as we begin a new decade of championing business in our region."

Seiwert holds an Accounting and Business Administration degree from Friends University. His last position with the Wichita Eagle was General Manager.
